Welcome!

It's my pleasure to send you our latest catalogue of adult fun products featuring lots of best selling sex toys and sexy lingerie items. When I first started selling sex toys in 1985 the internet was almost non-existent and catalogues were the main source for adults to choose adult products.

Today, with the internet well advanced catalogues are somewhat 'old hat'. However, we respect the fact that many customers do not have internet connection so rather than stop producing a catalogue we have produced this sample 24 page catalogue of best sellers for those who don't shop online.

For those of you who do shop online, please visit our website, www.sextoyshopping.co.uk where we have our complete range of products available, there's over 2000 products to choose from, with more added on a regular basis!

In 2010 we celebrate 25 years in business and we are very proud to have supplied over 1,500,000 customers with over £10 million worth of adult products! It's been a fantastic journey and for me personally its been extremely satisfying to know that my company has given so much pleasure to so many. Thank you to all our customers past and present, here's to many more years pleasure!

I hope you enjoy browsing our latest catalogue and if you are a new customer, I extend a warm welcome and invite you to join over 1.5 million customers and you too can soon experience your very own 'Magic Moments' with our massive range of products.

Have Fun!
